Alumni meet

The second alumni meet of Jain International Residential School (JIRS), Kanakapura Road, was held recently.

In all, 50 former students attended the meet.

Each one of them cherished old memories, visiting their dormitories and catching up with their old friends.

The programme began with the teachers presenting the school prayer.

The alumni then participated in various fun games organised for them.

This was followed by a variety entertainment programme.

In the evening, they were shown video-clippings of some of the precious moments spent at the school.

Former students Agni, Diwakar and Shyam Deep presented a musical programme. Mahek Bheda enthralled the audience with his dance.

Wg. Cdr. Ganesh Sharma, chief executive officer, presented memento to all former students.

A few of them stayed back at the dormitories recalling their school life.
