

THE HINDU

Friday, April 23rd, 2010

Warm send off to a class

NEW PHASE: The outgoing students of Class XII of Jain International Residential School at the graduation ceremony.

BANGALORE: Jain International Residential School (JIRS), Kanakapura Road, gave a warm send off to its Class XII students recently. Y. Vijaya Kumar, Principal, Sri Bhagwan Mahaveer Jain College of Engineering, was the chief guest.

The outgoing students shared their experiences of school life. Abhishek Raja said JIRS was like home where he felt comfortable studying in a peaceful environment.

Nishant Adesara said he cannot forget his teachers who helped him during his formative years, while M. Balaji expressed his gratitude to his riding instructor Naseer.

“He told me that my passion will lead me to my goal,” he said.

Aakanksha Agarwal was adjudged the Ms. JIRS and Dinesh Reddy Mr. JIRS.

The JASE team of production and direction presented their first documentary on hostel life in JIRS on the occasion. It had an interesting storyline and received a huge applause from the gathering.