

THE HINDU

Friday, July 30th, 2010

Stress on patriotism

Jain International Residential School (JIRS), Kanakapura Road, held its investiture ceremony on Saturday. Col. B.G. Cariappa, senior sports officer, ASC and Centre, was the chief guest. He took the salute. He quoted John F. Kennedy's words and told the students to imbibe the spirit of patriotism. He told the leaders to discharge their duties responsibly and with profound enthusiasm. Wg. Cdr. K.L. Ganesh Sharma, chief executive officer of JIRS, told the leaders to be role models to other students and understand the essence of leadership by appreciating others' views and effectively lead the group by personal example. Arun Ramesh Kumar was elected head boy and Shailja Bhagat the head girl. Akash Adukia is the school adjutant, while Prathveera Rai the sports secretary.