

Friday, September 16, 2011

SI equestrian meet from today

» Jain International Residential School will host the South India Equestrian Championship 2011 from September 16-18 at Jain Global Campus.

Seven teams from around South India will participate in the event. Competition will take place in three events, Dressage, Show Jumping and Tent pegging. A total of 50 horses from India and abroad would be on show at this mega event.