

Friday, September 16, 2011

Equestrian C'ship from today

Jain International Residential School (JIRS) will host the South India Equestrian Championship at Jain Global Campus starting September 16. This will be the first time that a school is hosting a full-fledged equestrian competition. The three-day event will see seven teams from all over South India participate. Top Indian riders Ajai Appachu, Nadia Haridass and Nitin Gupta are taking part. The competition would be conducted in dressage, show-jumping and tent pegging.