

Raksha Bandhan Celebrations

Raksha Bandhan, meaning "Knot of Protection" is one of the most important festivals celebrated by Hindus throughout the world. The festival stands for the beautiful relationship shared between brothers and sisters. A lifelong promise of protection is made on this special occasion. Rakhi holds great emotional and religious significance & exhibits the beautiful relationship of love, care and affection between siblings. The festival keeps the deep rooted culture of the country alive, strengthens the relationship of siblings and ensures togetherness. JIRS students celebrated the Raksha Bandhan Festival with great enthusiasm and zeal.
