

Australian & Canadian Universities visit JIRS

Top universities from Australia and Canada visited Jain International Residential School on 19 September 2014. The tour was an excellent opportunity for JIRS students to connect with representatives from Australia and Canada's leading universities. The format included a brief presentation on studying in Australia and Canada and was followed by a time for students to meet directly with university representatives at small stalls.

The institutions represented were:

- Binghamton University
- California State Polytechnic University, Pomona
- Florida International University
- Foothill + De Anza Colleges
- Hobart and William Smith Colleges
- John Carroll University
- Kendall College
- Michigan State University
- Pace University
- Saint Louis University
- Savannah College of Art & Design
- Southern New Hampshire University
- University of California, Davis
- University of California, Riverside
- University of Washington

