

TOP TEN REASONS: WHY JIRS IS THE MOST PREFERRED SCHOOL AMONG THE TOP RANKED SCHOOLS

1. Jain International Residential School is the only school in the top ten ranking list of Education World Magazine which belongs to premier education provider – JGI Group which has over 85 institutions across India.
2. It's a truly international school of the 21st century, having all the Programs and technology in academic pedagogy for the students of the next-generation, compared to traditional heritage boarding's
3. Jain International Residential School is the only school from Bangalore, Karnataka, which is the hub for the best international schools in the country that has made it into the top 20 schools category. Parents prefer Bangalore for the best education of their children.
4. Bangalore being a cosmopolitan city, not in a tier 2 city or a rural village far away from state capitals or in isolated hill stations, where it's difficult to get quality faculty, workshop trainers, exposure for children and where there are no academies for professional coaching for preparation for exams like IIT, AIPMT, CET, CLAT, SAT, ILETS, TOEFL, Toastmasters Galva's Club, Duke of Edinburg leadership camps, Model United Nations and HMC Programs, depriving children of the important exposure they need for an all-round development.
5. Largest campus of 350 acres in India housing state-of-the-art academic and sporting facilities amidst a very divine environment
6. Because of its proximity to the city, JIRS provides plenty of activities to children, field trips, city mall & amusement park visits for children to enjoy the boarding life.
7. JIRS has a very good fully boarding strength of almost 800 students which makes the environment competitive, lively and fulfilling for all students' activities, unlike a school with limited strength. Also JIRS being a coed school has good strength of girls to the ratio of 1:3. JIRS is ranked no. 1 in safety and hygiene, which is a very important factor for a boarding, for that matter a coed boarding school specifically.
8. Apart from the fact that JIRS being in Bangalore known for its diversity, moderate climate, proximity to best quality medical facilities in top super specialty hospitals in a short time in case of emergencies and excellent connectivity from all over the country as well as all parts of the world, JIRS by itself has a very diversified mix of student population with children from all 30 states of India and over 150 NRI and foreign students from across 24 countries around the globe.

- 9. JIRS has made a fine balance by blending the western education modules with eastern culture and heritage spread in a divine environment of a spiritual centre, places of worship, in a ultra-modern gurukul concept
- 10. JIRS is probably the only school in the country which through the dynamic vision of its chairman has made a Program, not just aiming at quality school education, but preparing children for life, by grooming them into future global leaders and business managers through its plethora of activities towards nurturing the spirit of leadership and entrepreneurship with value based education, to make job creators, not just job seekers, igniting in them the spark of startups and corporate leadership roles.
