

Orientation Programme for Students

An orientation programme was conducted by the CEO of JIRS, Wg. Cdr. K L Ganesh Sharma for the various sections of the school in different phases. The new students were briefed about the rules and regulations of the school, its achievements during the academic year 2015 -16. Also the expectations were set for the students during the academic session 2015-16.

Students were also introduced to the JGI Group, which they belong and they were also given a brief talk about our visionary Chairman Dr. Chenraj Roychand.

After the orientation programme, Sparsh Anand of Grade XI said that, all students are like stones and will be made as diamond with the help of the guidelines, coaching given by the teachers at JIRS. Further, Sparsh said that he was motivated by the speech and inspired by the insight by Dr. Chenraj Roychand, and especially liked the quote “When you give respect you get respect”. He also added that, the crystal clear information given about the school makes him more comfortable.
