

EENADU INDIA

Source: indianandworldpageant.com

Patna: Bhavana Jain, winner of Femina Miss India Bihar 2018 beauty pageant has proved that winning the pageant is not all about the waving hands, awarding of sashes and definitely not the wearing of crown. It is more than that. Her sterned pertinacity to win the pageant title leaving 27 participants behind her.

Bhavana belongs to Purnia district of Bihar and comes from a business-oriented family. She did her schooling from Jain International Residential School. She went to Kolkata for the higher education where she participated in the competition.

For her, the journey to being a Miss India has been a dream and passion which is now getting a vision.

By winning this title, she now became eligible for competing 29 other participants in Femina Miss India 2018 which is going to be held in Mumbai after two months.